Welcome to Tiny Paws Resort, the only small breed daycare and boarding facility in White House, TN.

Why small breed only? Animal caregivers to all types of breeds, shapes, and sizes, are aware that the smaller four-legged babies seem to require just a little more. Their little bodies tend to experience anxiety and stress. The anxiety and stress can come from separation, loud noises or maybe the feeling of intimidation by a larger four-legged buddy. We say they deserve the extra attention with a stress-free environment while away from home. Locating a secure and safe place can also be stressful for the owner.

Tiny Paws Resort's goal is to provide the "just like home" atmosphere. We provide free play in our secured indoor/outdoor play area through-out the whole day, provide plush pillows in crates with privacy covers to help them feel secure and cozy while they rest, and offer crate free open suites with plush bedding on raised beds. Not to mention playing and getting their exercise with the same size screened buddies. We make sure all are compatible. Plus... no extra charge for lots of cuddling and attention all day every day

THIS IS WHY! "We Don't Run with The Big Dogs"
